HUN PROPAGANDA LIVES EVEN THOUGH PEACE HERE

German propaganda, intended to create among the American troops a feeling of hostility against England still exists to an appreciable extent, according to a bulletin issued at division headquarters Monday. This propaganda is particularly active among air service troops which have been quartered in England to a great extent than troops of other branches of the service. It has taken the form not only of minor complaints about food and treatment but of wild accusations concerning the attitude of the English government towards American troops. The bulletin warns soldiers from giving any heed to these stories, and pays a tribute to the part England took in the war.

WILSON

President Delivers Notable Address, Standing Hatless in the Rain.

bestowed upon him. He then proceeded to the royal palace, where he received delegations, going thence to La Sena, where he dined and where it was hoped he would attend the opera. While he was at the palace the great square before the cathedral was jammed that the cathedral had to be closed.

The American secret service men declared that they had never taken any president through such scenes of demonstrations or such great crowds. While the throngs were orderly, they seemed wild with enthusiasm and determined to crowd near to the president.

The tour about the city, which the presidential party went through, was with the accompaniment of virtually one continuous roar of "vivas." It appearing that if every individual was shouting his greetings.

It was evident that the president was much fatigued by the strain, notwithstanding his enjoyment of the many incidents of the visit, perhaps the most touching was the presentation by wounded soldiers of a memorial favoring a league of nations.

Wilson Will Return Home; Then Go Back To France, Reported

Paris, France, Jan. 4.—President Wilson will return to the United States to attend the closing sessions of the present congress, according to present plans, and will come back to France for the later sessions of the peace congress.

Referring to the peace principle, the president was at the municipal reception, where he reiterated that the peace must be made in no special sense that the president concluded by saying that he had heard the story of Italy's privations and sacrifices in the war and added:

"I take off my hat to the great people of Italy and tell them that my mind is merged into friendship and affection."

In replying to the welcome of the municipality, president Wilson said:

"May I not say to you, as the representative of the great people of the world, that it is impossible for me to put into words the impressions I have received today. I believe the significance of the spontaneous welcome, so evidently coming from the heart, has been profoundly moving to me, and I have never seen the significance of that welcome. You have yourself referred to it. I am as keenly aware, I believe, as anyone can be, that the social structure rests upon the great working classes of the world, and that these working classes in several countries of the world have by their consciousness of community of interest, by their consciousness of solidarity, and by their consciousness of more than any other influence has to establish a world opinion which is not of a kind to be broken by a coalition, but in the opinion, one might say, of mankind and I am aware, Sir, that none of us now charged with the very great and serious responsibility of concluding peace, must think, act and confer in the presence of this opinion that we are not masters of the fortunes of any nation, but are the servants of mankind; that it is not our privilege to force peace upon the world, but it is our manifest duty to study only the general interest."

Fourth Son Of Former Kaiser Goes To Work
Paris, France, Jan. 4.—The fourth son of William I, the late German emperor, Prince August Wilhelm, has taken a situation with a German automobile firm, according to a Berlin dispatch.

Is a Solemn Thing.
"This is a solemn thing, Sir, and here in Munich, I know, that so much of the pulse of international sympathy beats, I am glad to stand up and say that I believe I have been pulled back also in my own veins and that I am not thinking of a particular settlement."

"I am very much touched today, Sir, to receive at the hands of wounded soldiers a memorial in favor of a league of nations, which they have given me. I believe I have been pulled back also in my own veins and that I am not thinking of a particular settlement."

"And when I speak of suffering men I think also of suffering women. I know that I have been pulled back also in my own veins and that I am not thinking of a particular settlement."

"I have heard from your minister of food the story how, for days together, there would be no bread. And when they knew that there was no bread the spirit of the people did not flag."

Pope Hopes for Lasting Peace.
Rome, Italy, Jan. 4.—(By The Associated Press).—Pope Benedict Saturday gave audience to a delegation of American newspaper men, to whom he expressed the greatest hope for a lasting peace, his appreciation of the efforts to achieve it, and his confidence in the continuing participation and influence of the United States in world affairs.

In his conversation with president Wilson, pope Benedict gave expression to identical sentiments and enlarged upon these.

In view of the president's rejection of the peace offer, the reception of the American executive at the Vatican today was looked forward to with great interest in all official circles and the warm greetings exchanged by president Wilson and the pontiff were commensurate with such satisfaction here.

Pope Benedict Saturday presented to president Wilson a handsome mosaic reproducing Guido Renard's famous picture of St. Peter. The mosaic was made in the Vatican grounds by the ancient mosaic master of the Vatican and is a yard square.

The president while here continued the discussion of Italy's claims before the peace conference, but the measure of the American support of them has not yet been fully developed and seems likely to be before further conferences.

AMP CODY WILL END USE BY LAST OF FEBRUARY

Except for the base hospital at Camp Cody, Deming, N. M., which is to be retained for returned invalid soldiers, the military camp there will probably be entirely demolished by the end of February, according to E. C. Bell, a newspaper man of Deming, who arrived in El Paso Monday. A working crew from Columbus, N. M., was sent to the camp last week to facilitate the salvaging of the buildings. The base hospital is preparing to receive about 2000 patients.

FIVE SHIPS BRING NEARLY 9000 MEN FROM OVERSEAS

New York, Jan. 4.—Five transports and the battleship North Carolina steamed into New York harbor Sunday, bringing a total of nearly 9000 officers and men of the army and navy from France.

The North Carolina had among her 1233 passengers detachments of marines who had seen service at Chateau Thierry, Belleau wood and the Argonne forest and 19 officers and 264 men of the 113th ammunition train.

The transport Agamemnon conveyed the biggest contingent, having 2711 men. The list included 220 wounded and more than 2000 officers and men of the 14th field artillery, which was recruited in Utah; the Henderson, with 23 officers and 813 men and nearly 400 wounded; the New Amsterdam, with 73 officers and 1592 men, including the 301st field artillery and 228 wounded, and the Heredia, with 73 officers and 18 enlisted men.

Habitual Constipation Cured by "LAX-POS WITH PEPSIN" is a specially prepared Tonic Laxative for Habitual Constipation. It relieves promptly but should be taken regularly for it to 11 days to induce regular action. It stimulates and regulates. Very pleasant to take. 50c per bottle. —Adv.

HOW TO GET RID OF CORNS

A Simple, Safe and Reliable Way. No Pain or Soreness.

Thanks to a new discovery made from a Japanese product women will soon be wearing smaller and prettier shoes than ever. Corns are to be a thing of the past. A new preparation, called Ice-Mint, is said to make any corn or callous shrink right up and lift off easily. Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes can be lifted right out root and all after a touch of two of Ice-Mint. It's wonderful. No pain and not a bit of soreness when applying it or afterwards. People are warned to stop cutting and trimming their corns and avoid the risk of blood poison. Simply get a few cents' worth of Ice-Mint from your druggist, and from the very second that it touches that sore, tender corn your poor, tired, aching feet will feel as cool, easy and comfortable as you will just wash with relief. Think of it—just a little touch of that cooling, soothing Ice-Mint and real foot joy is yours. It is the real Japanese secret of fine, healthy little feet, is highly appreciated by women who wear high heel shoes and men who have to stand on their feet all day.—Adv.
